SUBJECT GUIDE VIDEOS

See the subject guides here

Chat to us about your videos for guidance. Speak to the team (services@ucas.ac.uk) in the first instance, and we can connect you with our content strategy team for more in-depth content guidance if needed. You may want to use existing videos and edit if necessary, or you might choose to produce something new.

- ▶ Video content needs to bring the subject to life, and first and foremost enrich the subject guide page to give users more information and insight into what studying the subject is like. You could feature facilities, campuses and USPs for your institution in relation to the subject.
- ▶ There are no strict restrictions on what to cover in the video, but the subject needs to be the focus. This can involve 'day in the life' style content from current students/staff, tours of facilities, insights into modules and course content, why students chose their subject, what they like best about their subject, and so on. Please be mindful that the subject guide pages are not course listings, so it they will be more of a top level overview of subject areas (so you could cover a few courses within a subject video).
- ▶ Style-wise, peer-to-peer works very well for this audience, so some element of students speaking about their experiences would be ideal.
- ▶ Videos will ideally be up to 4 minutes maximum in length.
- ▶ CTAs will go through to your provider page on the UCAS website.
- ▶ Please include two versions of the video – with subtitles burnt in, and without and with a transcript.
- ▶ Quality ideally 1080p (standard size 1920 x 1080). The video thumbnail is going to be really important here. We can embed the video from YouTube for you but to ensure maximum accessibility, it would be beneficial for us to upload the video directly to the site for you.

SUBJECT GUIDE PROMOTED COURSE

See the subject guides here

Link through to your UCAS course listing from 1 of our popular in-depth subject guides. Promoted course links will feature prominently on the page and take precedence over non-promoted courses.

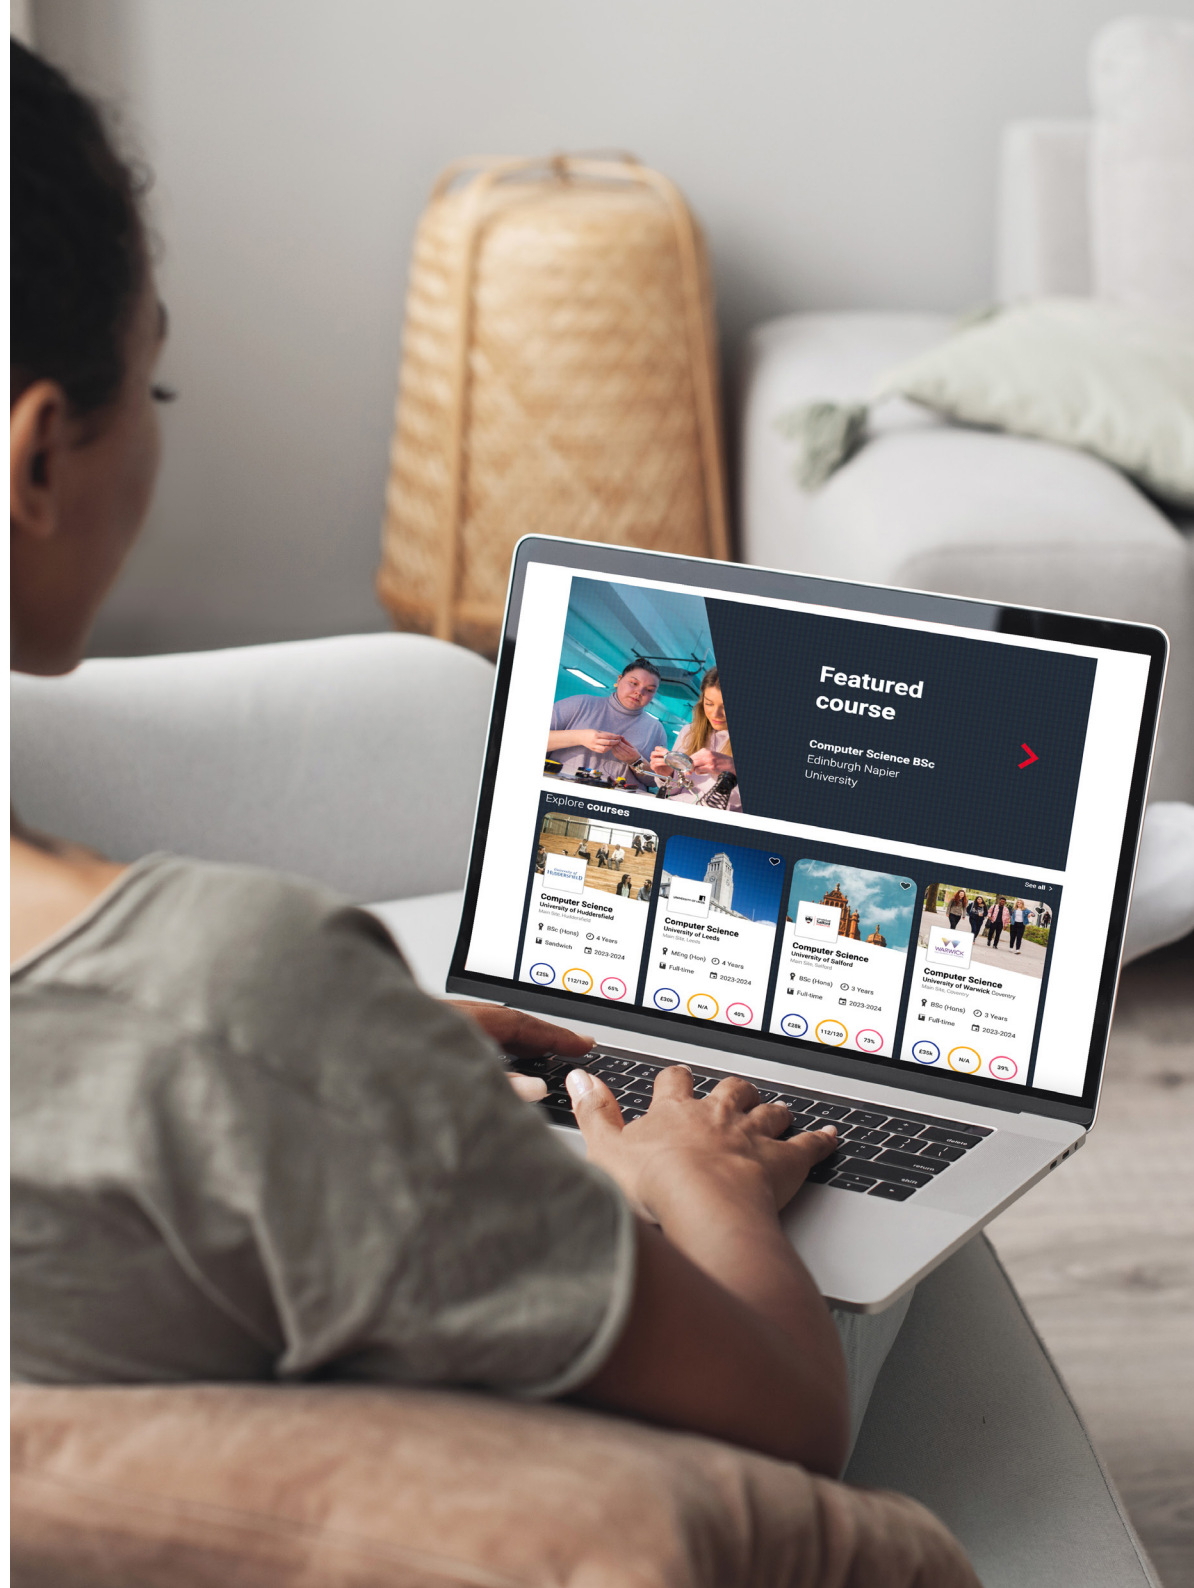

- ▶ Up to 3 advertisers per subject

We'll need your:

- ▶ Course title
- ▶ Course link

And we'll take care of the rest!

We will link to the course page on UCAS, but if you have a relevant image you'd like to supply, we can use it here.
